OPPOSITION to the force bill on the part of Republicans is devotion to the best interests of the party.

THE School Board needs regulation, but a bowie knife cannot be commended as the proper sort of regulator.

SENATOR QUAY is naturally in favor of a "gag" rule in the Senate. He has learned the value of it by experience.

THE Kemmler extra was another demonstration of the superiority of the POST-DISPATCH over all competitors.

THE first Senator to whom the Republicans should apply the "gag" rule is PLUM. The distinguished Kansan is telling some unpleasant truths about protection.

THE Democratic State Committee is starting into the campaign on a Democratic line by deciding not to assess candidates. The assessment plan smacks of boodles and bossism.

ONLY a constitutional lottery bill which carefully guards the rights of the people should be passed by Congress; but a bill can be devised, passed and enforced which will crush the lottery evil.

CHICAGO is forming shrewd plans to reap rich rewards from the World's Fair enterprise regardless of its success or failure. The splendid and costly improvements to be paid for out of the general World's Fair fund will be handsome compensation for whatever labor and money Chicago may contribute.

A REPUBLICAN organ remarks that if the tariff bill, when it passes, is displacing, the next Congress, if it is Republican, will revise it satisfactorily. If a displacing tariff bill passes, which appears likely at present, the next Congress will not be Republican. One opportunity to do right is as much as the American people care to give a party.

MAGNETISM and electricity have certain principles in common and the fate of KEMMLER should warn the President that when he gets thoroughly magnetized by the Maine battery he may be no better than a dead man. The indications now are that the magnetizing process is progressing rapidly, but when the President will be the triumph of bossism and organized greed and the South will merely be used as a means to that end.

THE rumor that CLARKSON was about to retire from the deputation business to a big bonanza in Japan, is followed quickly by the announcement that the Rocky Mountain News has been bought for $500,000 by a syndicate who will turn it into a Republican organ under CLARKSON's management. Capitalists interested in controlling Western politics think nothing of paying half a million dollars to turn a Democratic into a Republican paper.

WHEN there is no campaign in progress Field Marshal HALSTED permits himself to enjoy a sane interval and gives patriotism and common sense a chance to triumph over partisanship and the bloody shirt mania. That he is now reveling in patriotic impulses is proved by his joining the noble band of Republicans who oppose the Federal election bill. He asserts that it would be "a dead letter in the black belt and an expensive sham or an unequalled evil elsewhere."

THE report of the execution of KEMMLER by electricity makes it appear that New York has merely revived in a modified and more agreeable form the old punishment of burning at the stake. Before KEMMLER was pronounced dead smoke and unpleasant odors resembling those on a roast were rising from his body. The result of the experiment was a failure in that it disappointed the expectations of the advocates of the method that death would be instantaneous upon the shock. The current was turned on the victim for nearly five minutes before death was assured. Dr. SPITZER, one of the experts at the scene, is quoted as remarking that the trial was a failure and that there would never be another electrocution. This cannot be accepted as yet, however, as a final judgment.

MRS. VIRGINIA CAMPBELL THOMPSON, daughter of a distinguished preacher, widow of a prominent Democrat and sister of a prominent Republican, was given the Louisville Post-office thirteen years ago to tide over a faction fight among the local Republicans. She managed the Post-office so well and let politics so severely alone that HAYES, GARFIELD, ARTHUR and CLEVELAND all continued her in the place to please the patrons of the office. Her removal the other day to make room for an active Republican politician is an indication that President HARRISON is keeping his promise to advance civil service reform by "advancing it backwards."

THE President has paid for his Cape May cottage. This is settled finally by the public statement to that effect of Mr. WM. V. MCKEAN, the gentleman who engineered the gift enterprise. There is no doubt, however, that the cottage was first received as a gift by Mrs. HARRISON and that the payment was forced upon the President by press criticism. Still it is better that the cottage should be paid for even if it is the result of second thoughts. It would have been better still, of course, if the cottage incident had never occurred.

THERE can be little doubt that the approaching meeting of the Czar and Kaiser will work for peace. The Czar has just delivered an opinion to the effect that the Russian army must be strengthened and he will show his brother ruler what a magnificent array of armed men he can muster. The Kaiser will be duly impressed and will go home with fresh resolution to make the German army stronger. Thus watch-dog peace will be preserved with the glory of the two monarchs even if the people have to starve to do it.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANAMAKER declares that the lottery lobby in Washington was never so strong as it is now, and in the course of an interview with a World correspondent compliments that paper and the independent press generally for the splendid aid given him in the fight against the lottery. If Mr. WANAMAKER will open his eyes a little wider he will find that the fight for the people and against evils and abuses is conducted for the most part by the independent press.

THE interest in the experiment of executing by electricity, made upon KEMMLER at Auburn Prison, has been widespread and the desire for news of the result on the part of the public was met by the POST-DISPATCH extra this morning. That extra gave the fullest and best account of the execution which appeared on the street and the mode of operation was illustrated by excellent cuts. The public looked to the POST-DISPATCH for the news and it was not disappointed.

THE people who may be incited to read the "Kreutzer Sonata" by TYRNE's decision, excluding it from the mails as an obscene thing, will throw it aside with a conviction that they have been victimized by an advertising trick. Its condemnation by the Russian censorship secured its publication in this country, but its sale had about stopped when the Post-office authorities gave a lift to one of the most unpopular books that ever was published.

THE West and conservative North are deeply interested in the defeat of the force bill as the South. While the measure is aimed directly at the control of Southern Congressional elections, this will mean in the end the control of Congress by a majority subservient to big dictation. The success of the measure will be the triumph of bossism and organized greed and the South will merely be used as a means to that end.

THE rumor that CLARKSON was about to retire from the deputation business to a big bonanza in Japan, is followed quickly by the announcement that the Rocky Mountain News has been bought for $500,000 by a syndicate who will turn it into a Republican organ under CLARKSON's management. Capitalists interested in controlling Western politics think nothing of paying half a million dollars to turn a Democratic into a Republican paper.

THE Old Story.
From the Boston Budget.
The summer traveler, arrived from that bourne to which he enthusiastically trusts he shall not return, is to be met on the Boston streets, in the same broken and contrite spirit of the tourist who returned from the Yosemite to New York, declaring he had beheld no scenery equal to an electric bell and a bath.

FRANCE SURPRISED.

Germany's Treaty With Belgium
Securing Forts on the Meuse.

The Next English Parliament
Likely to Be Short-Lived.

An Estimate of the Tory Voting Strength—The Grenadier Guards' Mutiny—Emperor William Inspects the English Marine Artillery—Prof. Koch's Consumption Cure Theory—Serbia and Austria—The Cremation Conference at Paris—President Caiman Withdraws His Resignation—The Cholera at Mecca—Foreign News.

LONDON, Aug. 6.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Times reports that King Leopold has signed a treaty with Germany, securing to the Germans forts on the Meuse as a basis of operations in case of a war with France. The treaty is said to be a masterpiece of diplomacy, and is being questioned in the Chamber of Deputies on the subject and will be asked whether the French Government has obtained from Belgium an explanation admitting of no equivocation.

The Tory Voting Strength.
LONDON, Aug. 6.—Some time ago the Conservative election managers decided to send to all the provincial agents asking them to make an estimate of the Tory voting strength in the event of a general election. Returns have just been made to the central Conservative office from which it is estimated that even an immediate general election would give the Government a majority of twenty. These figures, however, are the result of canvasses made before the recent defeats of the Government in Parliament and may be somewhat misleading. The Liberals, Unionists and Conservatives generally agree in the opinion that the next Parliament will be short-lived.

THE GRENADIER GUARDS' MUTINY.
Public opinion as to the excessive severity of the sentences imposed upon the ringleaders in the mutiny of the Grenadier Guards has manifested itself in a monster petition to the Government for the release of the imprisoned men. Already the petition has received 40,000 signatures and will be formally presented at the earliest possible moment.

DASTARDLY DEED OF REJECTED SUITORS.
At Macroom, County Cork, Monday evening two young men, Michael Collins and James Lucey, rejected suitors for the hand of a young woman named Margaret Sullivan, made a murderous assault upon her with a bottle of vitriol, burning her face, neck and bosom in a frightful manner. Collins and Lucey were arrested. Miss Sullivan is in a critical condition.

SWINBURNE'S POEM.
Mr. P. O'Brien asked in the House of Commons last evening whether the Government would prosecute the poet Swinburne for his poem in the Fortnightly Review, which he said was grossly calculated to incite the murder of the Czar. Mr. O'Brien was proceeding to read the poem when the Speaker called him to order, saying that Parliament could not control the poems of Swinburne. This remark was received with laughter.

Sir James Ferguson, Under Foreign Secretary, stated in the House of Commons last evening that the Duke of Norfolk had no mission from the British Government on his first visit to Rome and that his second visit was purely personal. The Duke's mission was purely personal.

REFUSED TO PARADE.
This morning a detachment of the Royal Artillery stationed at Exeter refused to parade and out the harness on the horses. Orders have been sent down from the Horse Guards that the men be confined in their barracks pending an investigation.

Wanted for Arson.
OTTAWA, Ontario, Aug. 6.—The Department of State on Monday forwarded to the British Minister at Washington, a warrant of recapture for the arrest of Mrs. Laila Lamontagne Michel, who is wanted in Sherbrooke for arson. Mrs. Michel is only 21 years, but she has succeeded in eluding the detectives for nearly two years. Her husband suspected her of being unduly intimate with his brother, Ben Lamontagne, and drove her from the house. At 1 o'clock on the morning of July 15, 1888, Ben knocked at the door of Michel's house and after giving Michel some whisky shot him three times. Michel was unconscious for a time, but recovered and found himself beneath a burning mattress and his house in flames. He managed to drag himself to the house of a friend, where his wife found him some hours later. In the meantime she had gone to the home of one of her relatives and reported that her husband had been smoking in bed and set fire to the house. After saving two trunks she declared he had gone again into the burning building and had been lost. She was fully dressed when she got to the house of her relative, but her brother was not with her. Her husband had been killed. She was arrested on the charge of arson, but she had gone to the United States. Detectives have been following her since then. She eluded capture until July 15, when she was arrested at Newton Junction, N. H. She is fighting the extradition proceedings in every way possible.

THUNDER, Hail and Cyclone.
ST. LEONARD, New Brunswick, Aug. 6.—Thunder and hail, accompanied by a cyclone, did considerable damage in the Parish of St. Anne, Midwestern County, yesterday. The cyclone covered a territory about two miles wide. Thirty-one buildings were blown down as far as heard from. Telegraphic communication between here and Edmundston was affected. Considerable damage was done to crops.

DAMAGE ON LAND AND WATER.
MONTREAL, Aug. 6.—A cyclone of unparalleled violence in this locality swept over Lake St. Louis and the St. Lawrence in the vicinity of Montreal, last evening, doing great damage on land and water. At the moment the storm burst, the principal event of the same was at Lake Ontario Lake, the association

THE Greek patriarch at Constantinople resigned as a protest against the Porte's disregard of the Greek Church.

THE Egyptian Government has adopted the severest measures, by quarantine and surveillance, to prevent Jewish pilgrims from bringing cholera into Europe.

A report issued by the Cotton Association states that the prospects of the Egyptian cotton crop are more favorable than the number of cotton worms has decreased.

One hundred and thirty-five deaths from cholera occurred at Mecca yesterday.

A HOSPITAL REMOVAL.
St. John's Institution to Be Removed to 2238 Lucas Place.

St. John's Hospital will, in the future, be removed to 2238 Lucas avenue. The Sisters of Mercy, who manage the hospital, have purchased the residence of Mr. Chas. E. Barney at that number, and have arranged to have the mansion converted into a modern hospital. It will be enlarged by the erection of additional wings, the sisters having secured the necessary permits for the purpose. The property was purchased by John McManamy from Mrs. Barney over a month ago for $25,000, and he turned it over to the hospital managers. The lot is 100 feet front, and the building is a double two-story structure with a mansard roof, containing some twenty large rooms. The building will be remodeled to suit the purpose for which it has been purchased. There will be enough ground room for the further improvements contemplated. The work on the addition is being commenced when the newly incurred debt is paid, and when it is completed the old building on Twenty-second and Morgan streets will be converted into a boarding house for young girls without parents. The new hospital will be a handsome structure, and will be a credit to the city. It will be a credit to the city.

OPPOSITION to the force bill on the part of Republicans is devotion to the best interests of the party.

THE School Board needs regulation, but a bowie knife cannot be commended as the proper sort of regulator.

SENATOR QUAY is naturally in favor of a "gag" rule in the Senate. He has learned the value of it by experience.

THE Kemmler extra was another demonstration of the superiority of the Post-Dispatch over all competitors.

THE first Senator to whom the Republicans should apply the "gag" rule is PLUMER. The distinguished Kansan is telling some unpleasant truths about protection.

THE Democratic State Committee is starting into the campaign on a Democratic line by deciding not to assess candidates. The assessment plan smacks of boodles and bossism.

ONLY a constitutional lottery bill which carefully guards the rights of the people should be passed by Congress; but a bill can be devised, passed and enforced which will crush the lottery evil.

CHICAGO is forming shrewd plans to reap rich rewards from the World's Fair enterprise regardless of its success or failure. The splendid and costly improvements to be paid for out of the general World's Fair fund will be handsome compensation for whatever labor and money Chicago may contribute.

A REPUBLICAN organ remarks that if the tariff bill, when it passes, is displeasing, the next Congress, if it is Republican, will revise it satisfactorily. If a displeasing tariff bill passes, which appears likely at present, the next Congress will not be Republican. One opportunity to do right is as much as the American people care to give a party.

MAGNETISM and electricity have certain principles in common and the fate of KEMMLER should warn the President that when he gets thoroughly magnetized by the Maine battery he may be no better than a dead man. The indications now are that the magnetizing process is progressing rapidly, but when the President is drawn over to BLAINE the chief difficulty will be to make him stick there.

REPUBLICANS who are crying out against Democratic obstruction in the consideration of the tariff bill should bear in mind that several distinguished Democratic Senators are giving the Democrats splendid aid in their obstructive tactics with regard to certain features of the bill. There is no doubt that a large number of Republicans would rejoice if parts of the bill should never get through the Senate.

WHEN there is no campaign in progress Field Marshal HALSTEAD permits himself to enjoy a sane interval and gives patriotism and common sense a chance to triumph over partisanship and the bloody shirt mania. That he is now reveling in patriotic impulses is proved by his joining the noble band of Republicans who oppose the Federal election bill. He asserts that it would be "a dead letter in the black belt and an expensive sham or an unequalled evil elsewhere."

THE report of the execution of KEMMLER by electricity makes it appear that New York has merely revived in a modified and more agreeable form the old punishment of burning at the stake. Before Mr. KEMMLER was pronounced dead smoke and unpleasant odors resembling those of a burning body were evolved from his body. The result of the experiment was a failure in that it disappointed the expectations of the advocates of the method that death would be instantaneous upon the shock. The current was turned on the victim for nearly five minutes before death was assured. Dr. SPITKA, one of the experts at the scene, is quoted as remarking that the trial was a failure and that there would never be another electrocution. This can not be accepted as yet, however, as a final judgment.

Mrs. VIRGINIA CAMPBELL THOMPSON, daughter of a distinguished preacher, widow of a prominent Democrat and sister of a prominent Republican, was given the Louisville Post-office thirteen years ago to tide over a faction fight among the local Republicans. She managed the Post-office so well and let political so severely alone that HAYES, GARFIELD, ARTHUR and CLEVELAND all continued her in the place to please the patrons of the office. Her removal the other day to make room for an active Republican politician is an indication that President HARRISON is keeping his promise to advance civil service reform by "advancing it backwards."

THE President has paid for his Cape May Point cottage. This is settled finally by the public statement to that effect of Mr. W. M. MCKEAN, the gentleman who engineered the gift enterprise. There is no doubt, however, that the cottage was first received as a gift by Mrs. HARRISON and that the payment was forced upon the President by press criticism. Still it is better that the cottage should be paid for even if it is the result of second thoughts. It would have been better still, of course, if the cottage incident had never occurred.

THERE can be little doubt that the approaching meeting of the Czar and Kaiser will work for peace. The Czar has just delivered an opinion to the effect that the Russian army must be strengthened and he will show his brother ruler what a magnificent array of armed men he can muster. The Kaiser will be duly impressed and will go home with fresh resolution to make the German army stronger. Thus watch-dog peace will be preserved with the glory of the two monarchs even if the people have to starve to do it.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL WANAMAKER declares that the lottery lobby in Washington was never so strong as it is now, and in the course of an interview with a WORLD correspondent compliments that paper and the independent press generally for the splendid aid given him in the fight against the lottery. If Mr. WANAMAKER will open his eyes a little wider he will find that the fight for the people and against evils and abuses is conducted for the most part by the independent press.

THE interest in the experiment of electrocution by electricity, made upon KEMMLER at Auburn Prison, has been widespread and the desire for news of the result on the part of the public was met by the Post-Dispatch extra this morning. That extra gave the fullest and best account of the execution which appeared on the street and the mode of operation was illustrated by excellent cuts. The public looked to the Post-Dispatch for the news and it was not disappointed.

THE people who may be incited to read the "Kreutzer Sonata" by TYNER's decision excluding it from the mails as an obscene thing, will throw it aside with a conviction that they have been victimized by an advertising trick. Its condemnation by the Russian censorship secured its publication in this country, but its sale had about stopped when the Post-office authorities gave a lift to one of the most unpopular books that was ever published.

THE West and conservative North are as deeply interested in the defeat of the force bill as the South. While the measure is aimed directly at the control of Southern Congressional elections, this will mean in the end the control of Congress by a majority subservient to boss domination. The success of the measure will be the triumph of bossism and organized greed and the South will merely be used as a means to that end.

THE rumor that CLARKSON was about to retire from the decapitation business to a bonanza in Japan, is followed quickly by the announcement that the Rocky Mountain News has been bought for $500,000 by a syndicate who will turn it into a Republican organ under CLARKSON's management. Capitalists interested in controlling Western politics think nothing of paying half a million dollars to turn a Democratic into a Republican paper.

Thieves Break Through and Steal. From Light. Smiley: "I hear you have bought a new patent burglar alarm, Tangle. I wish you'd let me have a look at it." "Tangle: "I wish I could, Smiley; but—well, the fact is, a thief got into the house last night and stole it."

The Old Story. From the Boston Budget. The summer traveler, arrived from that source to which he emphatically trusts he shall not return, is to be met on the Boston streets, in the same broken and contrite spirit of the tourist who returned from the Yosemite to New York, declaring he had beheld no scenery equal to an electric bell and a bath.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS. M. O. G.—The capital city of Holland is The Hague. W. H. E.—Story agents have no right to compel a writer to allow them to inspect his work.
